Bio

Yamil Colucci's rise to the upper echelons of house royalty has been nothing short of regal. Born and raised in the Argentinean capital, Yamil took his early musical cues from the Buenos Aires nightlife as the sounds of Sasha and Digweed filtered into his subconscious. Ha been 'one to watch' since his first releases in 2009. Going on to produce tracks for Stripped, Hope and as part of Nick Warren's excellent Balance CD in 2011, such activities have further enhanced Colucci's respect and standing among his peers and led to support of his work by the world's finest DJs as Sasha, Nick Warren, John Digweed and more. Furthermore, a South American tour with Guy J and Luis Junior has seen his DJ skills on display at Warung Beach and Amazon Club.
